

HUD ASSISTANCE FOR DISASTER VICTIMS

- If you need emergency housing or other emergency services immediately, these organizations may be able to help:
 - American Red Cross – 877-568-3317
 - Salvation Army - 800-725-2769
 - Catholic Charities - 800-919-9338.
- If you have an FHA Mortgage and want to take advantage of foreclosure relief, call HUD's National Servicing Center at 888-297-8685. You may be asked for the case number on your mortgage, the address or the name or names on the mortgage.
- If you were a resident of Public Housing in a disaster-affected area, first call HUD's Information Resource Center at 800-955-2232.
- If you have a Section 8 voucher from a disaster affected area, first call HUD's Information Resource Center at 800-955-2232.
- If you need to rebuild your house, you may be able to take advantage of HUD's 203(k) program. You will need to work with a local HUD-approved lender, which you can find at this page on HUD's web site: www.hud.gov/ll/code/llslcrit.html
- If you experience housing discrimination, call the Fair Housing Office at (800) 669-9777.

IMPORTANT! : Disaster victims should register immediately with the Federal Emergency Management Agency by calling (800) 621-3362. Some disaster assistance is contingent on your registration with FEMA. Additional information about FEMA is available at their web site: www.fema.gov.
